CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

There is one Body and one Spirit,
There is one hope in God's call to us.
One Lord, one faith, one Baptism,
One God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all.
As Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, let us walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which we have been called, with all humility and gentleness,
With patience, bearing with one another in love, being diligent to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
Until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.
To God alone be the glory. Amen.

(adapted from Ephesians 4)

INVOCATION AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Faith, Hope, and Love ..... Mary McDonald
Anniversary Choir and HBBC Orchestra

This anthem was newly commissioned for HBBC to celebrate 100 years of ministry.

If I speak with tongues of angels without God's love in me,
I'm a loud noise or clanging cymbal. There is none of Christ in me.

If my faith could move a mountain, or I had gifts of prophecy,
If I gave everything but had not love, there would be none of Christ in me.

Love is patient, love is kind, never boasts; God's love will shine!
These three remain: faith, hope, and love, but the greatest of these is love.

If I speak God's word with power, revealing all His majesties, but no love at the very heart of me, I am nothing without love.

Love bears all things, believes all things; hopes for all things, endures all things.
Faith, hope, and love, but the greatest of these is love.

Jeff Pethel

Eternal God, who is and who was and who is to come, we have assembled in Your house on this Lord's Day and Anniversary Sunday to hallow Your name and to declare Your glory among all the peoples of the earth.

We praise You, O God.

Long ago our fathers and mothers were led in their spiritual pilgrimage by Your guiding hand, and were comforted in the knowledge that even when they walked in the valley of the shadow of death, they were not alone, for You were with them. Continue to direct the paths of Your people today, and be to us now as You were then, a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.

Guide us, O Lord, and lead us in the way everlasting.

We acknowledge the great cloud of witnesses that surrounds this congregation, and we confess our great debt to those who founded Hayes Barton Baptist Church one hundred years ago, and we pray that the spirit that kindled within their souls will ignite and burn within us not only today, but in all the days and years to come.

Set our souls afire, O Spirit of the living God.

For every precious memory revived in this hour of celebration, for each remembrance of extraordinary faith, courageous hope, and sacrificial love, we give You thanks, and we pray that our children and our children's children will not be robbed of this glorious spiritual heritage because of our indifference or infidelity.

O Lord, make us faithful.

Remind us of the firm foundation upon which we stand, even Jesus Christ our Lord, and save us from cowardly surrender to the world, from rendering unto Caesar that which belongs only to You, from confusing that which is temporal for that which is eternal, from following the broad way that leads to destruction rather than the narrow way that leads to life.

Good Lord, deliver us and lead us in the paths of righteousness for Your name's sake.

Awaken in us a true spirit of compassion. Enlarge our sympathies and increase our magnanimity. Rescue us from narrow-mindedness and remove from among us the walls that divide us. Empower us not only to love our neighbor as ourselves, but also to love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us.

Lord, have mercy on us and grant us these blessings.

Lord, make our church worthy of Christ.

Lord, send us on mission for Christ.

Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think,

According to the power that works in us, unto Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

FRIENDSHIP PAD

We are honored by your presence this morning. At the end of each pew in the center aisle, you will find our Friendship Pad. Please take a moment to record your attendance. If you are visiting with us, we would love for you to record additional information so that we can contact you further.

ENTER TO WORSHIP

This is a holy hour. We invite you to enter this Sanctuary with joy and reverence. When you have taken your seat, spend a few moments in quiet reflection as you prepare your heart for worship. Please remember to silence your cell phone.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

We invite you to participate in worship by utilizing the Bibles and hymnals that can be found directly below the pew in front of you. Hearing assistance devices can be picked up from the Narthex or the Christian Resource Center if needed. Please ask an usher if you need assistance locating a device.

BECOME A MEMBER OF HBBC

Those who desire to join our church may come forward to where the pastor is standing during the Hymn of Response. If you would like to meet with a minister before making this decision, any of our ministers would be happy to answer your questions.

FOR CHILDREN DURING WORSHIP

Childcare will be provided for children kindergarten and under during the worship service. Children's Church is offered for grade school children (1st-5th graders) on 1st, 3rd, and 5th Sundays in Room 11 during the school year starting in October. Worship bags, including craft supplies and other activities, are located in the Narthex for children to use during worship. Please return the bags at the end of the service.

ABOUT SUNDAY SCHOOL

On Sunday mornings at 9:45 AM, we provide classes for all ages to enjoy Bible study and fellowship. Find a class that's right for you at hbbc.org/sunday-school or contact the church office (919) 833-4617.

ABOUT TODAY'S WORSHIP

During these weeks leading up to Anniversary Sunday on November 8, 2026, we are exploring the meaning of the various symbols on our baptistry doors. Today's symbol is found behind the open doors. The cross is the supreme emblem of our faith, boldly proclaiming the death, burial, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Today's Sanctuary flowers are given by David and Susan Hailey in celebration of our church's 100 years of faithful ministry and in appreciation for the privilege of serving alongside an incredibly gifted staff and a loving and generous congregation. To God alone be the glory.

The golden yellow mums in the connector hallway are in honor and memory of Durwood B. Williams given by Gail and Barry Johnson.

The rose on the pulpit celebrates new life in our church. We celebrate the birth of Hugo and Elizabeth Gilbert's daughter on October 26. Frank and Raquel Turner are the proud grandparents.

Today Dr. Hailey is proudly wearing the robe worn by our beloved former pastor, Dr. T. L. Cashwell, Jr.

Also today, we are celebrating the birthdays of the following:
November 11 Vivian Hughes 94, HBBC Member
November 14 Jim Wofford 97, TV Viewer

UPCOMING EVENTS

RBA BASKETBALL

IN-PERSON | Practices Monday/Tuesday evenings

Children and youth in Grades 4-12 are invited to play on one of Hayes Barton Baptist Church's basketball teams for the 2026-2027 season! There is a Freshman League open to boys and girls (Grades 4-6), Junior League boys only (Grades 7-9), and Senior League boys only (Grades 10-12). HBBC will provide players with a reversible jersey and shorts to be returned at the end of the season. You can register online at hbbc.org/registration or on the church app. The cost is $25 per player.

CENTENNIAL CHARTER OPEN UNTIL DEC 31, 2026

The Centennial Charter will remain open until the end of the year. The charter will be available following worship on Sunday, November 8, and each Sunday after that. You can come by the church during the week and sign the charter.

DEACON SLATE AFFIRMED

Thank you for participating in the vote to approve the slate of deacons who will begin their three-year term in 2027. The slate was approved during the church business meeting on Sunday, October 6. Our new deacons are: Jeff Brooks, Madison Gardner, Janice Haywood, Bob Hellwig, Brooke Johnston, Meredith Kinder, David Mobley, Cathy Morris, Greg Owen, Jay Parker, Bill Teague, and Frank Turner.

VETERANS DAY LUNCHEON

IN-PERSON | Wednesday, November 11 at 12:00 PM in Hailey Hall

Veterans and their guests are invited to join us for a special lunch and presentation. Lunch will be served by our children, and you will have a chance to connect with them around the table as you share a meal together. We look forward to sharing and offering our heartfelt gratitude for your service and sacrifice. Please RSVP at hbbc.org/registration or by calling Cathy Eller in the church office (919-833-4617).

WHO WILL BE STORY #100?

We celebrate that we now have 70 faith stories and are getting close to our goal! There are so many ways you can tell your story! Write from the perspective of a turning point or from a thematic view. Is there an event or even an object that symbolizes your journey? Is there a panel on the baptistry doors that connects with your story?

If you have an older friend or family member, could you offer to let them tell you their story while you write or type it for them? And – you can write a second story if something comes to mind that you would like to share. We have a Bible because the patriarchs of our faith told their stories! Stories should be emailed to 100faithstories@hbbc.org.

WOMEN'S MINISTRY FALL GATHERING

IN-PERSON | Thursday, November 19 from 6:00-8:00 PM in Hailey Hall

Join us for an evening filled with good food, fellowship, and inspiration as Haley Yow, Christian speaker, writer, life and executive function coach, and clinical mental health counseling intern, helps us consider how God meets us at our limits with compassion rather than condemnation and learn to recognize what is ours to carry, what should be shared, and what must be surrendered to Him. Sign up at hbbc.org/registration or on the church app by Monday, November 16. The cost is $8 per person.

THE CHURCH AWARD TO HAYES BARTON

Each year, Baptist Women in Ministry of North Carolina presents the Church Award to a congregation that is exemplary in supporting and encouraging the cause of women in ministry.

We are proud to announce that this year, as our congregation celebrates our 100th anniversary, we are the 2026 recipients of this award. For more than six decades—beginning in 1958 with the calling of Carolyn Byers to serve as our minister of music— women have found opportunities to serve, lead, preach, and grow into their callings within this congregation.

The Church Award also carries with it a very special symbol: the "Cloud of Witnesses" Quilt. Created in 2008 to celebrate the 25th anniversary of BWIM NC, the quilt reminds us of our interdependence and of the generations of women and allies whose faithfulness has helped make the way for those who follow. Each year, the recipient of the Church Award has the privilege of keeping and displaying this quilt for the year.

CENTENNIAL CHRISMON

This year, members of our church have specially prepared a new Chrismon for our centennial celebration. The Chrismon is based upon a design called "Birth of the Church." It features an equilateral triangle, a descending dove, and seven individual flames. These symbolize respectively the Trinity, the coming of the Holy Spirit, and the tongues of fire that rested on the disciples on the Day of Pentecost. Added to this design is the number 100 in celebration of our church's 100th anniversary.

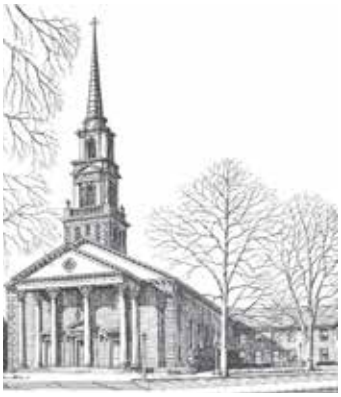

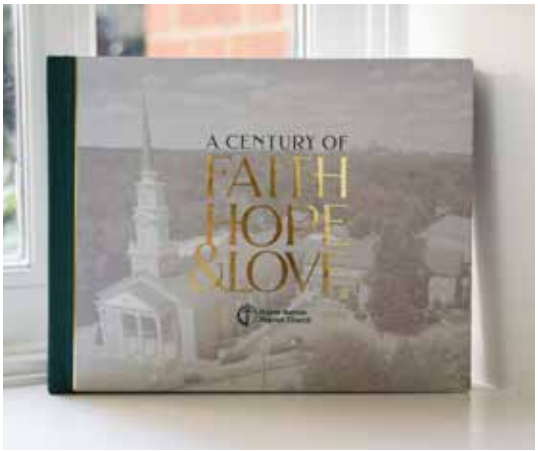

CENTENNIAL KEEPSAKES

Throughout this centennial year, we have offered members and friends of our church numerous mementos to mark this significant milestone. The Centennial Charter will provide an historic record of members of our church who signed the charter at some point during our centennial year. Each person who signed the charter was given a blue enamel lapel pin that features a raised image of our sanctuary. Two other items that feature a similar display of our sanctuary building are our HBBC Christmas ornament and the 1976 Jerry Miller line-drawing print that was commissioned for our church's fiftieth anniversary. In addition, some of the old slate shingles that were replaced on our sanctuary roof have been repurposed as etched souvenirs. The slate is available in four sizes. Each slate has one of four meaningful designs: the Church Logo, the Centennial Logo, the Image of the Church, or Dr. Hailey's Benediction.

CENTENNIAL HISTORY

As a part of our centennial celebration, we are pleased to present to our congregation A Century of Faith, Hope, and Love by Cathy and Ed Morris. This highly illustrated narrative tells the story of our church from its beginning to the present day. Each chapter recounts the many ways that our family of faith has been engaged with our community and beyond in mission and ministry. This is truly a tale of a faithful God working together with faithful people to be the presence of Christ in the world. The book will soon be available for purchase.

AN ABRIDGED HISTORY OF HAYES BARTON BAPTIST CHURCH

In the early 1920s, Raleigh was growing. The streetcar tracks came down Glenwood and went all the way to Bloomsbury Park, and lots were being sold in the area called "Hayes Barton." The 1922-23 City Directory showed the street names Aycock, Vance and Cowper, but only one house on Aycock. It was in 1922 that the Baptist City Council of Raleigh, forerunner of the Raleigh Baptist Association, purchased a site for a new Baptist Church between Whitaker Mill and White Oak roads at Glenwood Avenue, in anticipation of the city's growth in a northerly direction.

By 1926, there were a number of houses in the area, and in the fall of that year a number of meetings were held in the neighborhood for the purpose of organizing a Baptist Church. Officers were named, and yes, being Baptists, committees were appointed.

On Sunday, November 7, 1926, at 2:30 p.m. in the North Vanguard Presbyterian Church (now Westminster Presbyterian Church) on Whitaker Mill Road, Hayes Barton Baptist Church was organized. Quoting from Luther Hughes' history of the church:

> "After brief preliminaries, the names of those with their letters were read and a motion to organize a Baptist Church was made. The motion was carried unanimously...
> "A motion to name the new organization the Hayes Barton Baptist Church also carried unanimously...
> "In response to an invitation extended to those desiring to unite with the new church by profession of faith, 4 others ... were received for baptism....
> "It was agreed that all members received into the church by January 1, 1927, would be considered charter members..."

When that day came, 173 charter members had been enrolled. Men of the church and friends built the first temporary structure. They called it "The Tabernacle." The first service was held there on Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 1926. Late in 1927, the little wooden structure was torn down, and work began on a beautiful creamcolored brick structure of classical architecture which included classroom, kitchen and office space as well as a sanctuary which would seat 850.

The 1940s were a period of growth for Hayes Barton Baptist Church, not only in church staff and church programs, but also in acquisition of additional property. Hayes Barton had its first missionaries in 1946, and in December 1950, Hayes Barton sponsored a "Living Nativity," the first such project in Raleigh and perhaps in North Carolina. Over 100,000 people viewed it. The "Living Nativity" continues to be a part of the Christmas traditions at Hayes Barton Baptist Church.

Space limitations on the growing church necessitated expansion, and the Educational Building, which included a chapel that seated 140, was completed in 1953. Major renovations on the older sanctuary were made in 1956.

On September 5, 1962, ten months after the church observed its thirty-fifth anniversary, the sanctuary and entire portion of the church which had been built in 1928 were destroyed by fire. The Educational Building suffered extensive smoke and water damage. That night, in a special called session, the Deacons voted to rebuild, as did the church congregation at its Sunday Worship Service at the Colony Theater, now the Rialto.

Although there were major delays in the rebuilding program, ground was broken for the new building on January 3, 1965. The church membership entered the Education Building facilities on August 28, 1966, and the first service of worship was held in the new sanctuary, Colonial Georgian in style, on Thanksgiving Day, November 24, 1966, exactly 40 years after that first service in the little wooden "Tabernacle."

Hayes Barton Baptist Church does, indeed, have a rich history to recall. On November 4, 2001, the church began a month-long celebration of its 75 years of ministry and service, highlighted by a joyous day of worship and fellowship on November 4. Not only does Hayes Barton Baptist Church have a rich and wonderful history to cherish, but it also has a marvelous and challenging future to embrace as it continues to encourage and equip its members and friends to experience and share a warm and vital faith in Jesus Christ through various programs and ministries.

Shortly after the turn of the century our church once again embarked on a building program. After years of planning, in September 2007 the Cashwell Corridor, named in memory of long-time beloved pastor Dr. T. L. Cashwell, Jr., opened to provide barrier-free access to the sanctuary. Later that year, on November 4, the Family Life Center was dedicated. The facility, joined by a ramped hallway to the Education Building, provides space for education, worship, fellowship, and recreation. Through new facilities and growing programs and mission opportunities, Hayes Barton Baptist Church continues to work to embody its theme statement: Faith, Hope, Love. And You.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us,
looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of God.
